THE DAVOS OF DIGITAL FINANCE

By Laurent Nizri (🐦@LNizri)

CEO Altéir Consulting & Altéir Event, funder of Paris Fintech Forum

After the huge international success of the 2017 edition, the Paris Fintech Forum 2018 will bring together more than 2000 participants over two days in the heart of Paris on 30 & 31 January 2018, around more than 200 bankers, insurers and telecom operators, regulators and of course Fintech from all continents.

More than 150 Fintech CEOs from around the world are expected both in panel interviews and on our dedicated pitches and showcases scene. The majority of these Fintech will also be present in the exhibition hall thanks to small stands to better exchange with participants. Ministers of Finance from several European countries, institutional leaders, CEOs of major banks and unicorns of the Fintech, all will be meeting at the end of January in Paris for what has now become the "Davos of digital finance and fintech".

During these two days, all topics related to digital finance in general and Fintech in particular will be discussed. This event will take place at the Palais Brongniart, former Palace of the Stock Exchange in the heart of Paris, which will be privatized for the occasion.

This event is organized under the patronage of the French Ministry of Economy and Finance and with the support of Paris Region and more than 80 international partners.

Follow the twitter feed @ParisFinForum to stay in the news of the event. The program and the list of speakers are regularly updated on www.parisfintechforum.com
